

STAT

STAT

National Academy of Public Administration
Chartered by Congress

STAT

February 17, 1989

[redacted]
Director, Planning and Policy Staff
Intelligence Community Staff
Washington, DC 20505

Dear [redacted]

We cannot end this study without giving special thanks for the fine support we have received from all of the members of the Study Steering Group and many staff in the Key Building.

The NAPA panel and project staff were continually impressed with the thoughtfulness and objectivity reflected in SSG comments. Perhaps more important was that input was often provided within short timeframes. [redacted] played a key role in making this process work smoothly, and we enjoyed working with her.

In terms of administrative support, I would like to single out [redacted] of your staff and [redacted] the Wang administrator in the Key Building. Both went well beyond all expectations of professionalism and good nature in assisting in many phases of the project.

I would also appreciate it if you would let the appropriate supervisors know of the continuing dependable service we received from staff in the Key Building Registry. They were [redacted]

[redacted] of the IMO staff was also very helpful.

Finally, warmest thanks for your continual advice and encouragement. We all agreed that the only word for your abilities in managing the SSG is "masterful."

Again, many thanks. The work of these and many other people helped us undertake our study far more efficiently than would have been possible without their assistance.

Sincerely,

Don I. Wortman
Project Director

STAT

cc: House and Senate Intelligence Committees

STAT

1120 G Street, N.W., Suite 540 Washington, D.C. 20005-3801 (202) 347-3190

STAT

Page Denied